

Upper Street, London N1 2GG
Head Teacher: Sophie Gavalda
NOR: 450 aged 3 – 11
Contract: Permanent (plus one maternity cover)

We are looking for a Class Teacher for September 2025. Year group negotiable. Possibility of TLR opportunity.

Are you an inspiring, dynamic and reflective primary practitioner? Do you have a positive attitude and the skills to contribute to our excellent practice? If so, we would like to meet you!

We can offer you

- a friendly, supportive and ambitious staff team;
- children who want to learn within our enriched curriculum provision;
- high spec technology for staff and pupils;
- the benefits of the cycle to work scheme;
- potential subsidised accommodation on site;
- exciting professional development opportunities; and
- a school place for your child (subject to available spaces) with free wraparound childcare.

William Tyndale has an excellent academic record and a strong dedication to creativity, the arts, science and sport. Our recent (November 2024) Ofsted inspection was very positive. We are an inclusive and friendly school, with confident and well behaved children from many different backgrounds. Our staff are hardworking and highly motivated with a sense of fun and total commitment to every child. Parents and governors support the team positively, encouraging the best outcomes for all.

We rightly pride ourselves on the high expectations that we place on staff and children. Class Teachers are responsible for the day-to-day teaching and learning provision for all children in their class, including those with Special Educational Needs, English as an Additional Language, those more-able learners and those eligible for the Pupil Premium Grant.

The school is situated in the heart of Islington's wonderfully diverse community, close to public transport links. If you are interested, then please phone or email the school office to book a visit in January. You will be warmly welcomed!
